

Csv. File in data folder is the dataset
fyp.py is the python code for the project

To run the code, you need to install the python package used in the code first, then it should be runed successfully. It may take time running to see the full result.

Thanks for your work!